

THINK LIKE A DISCIPLINARIAN

Author or Journalist

Genre (What type of literature is this?)

Elements of Literature:

setting

characters

plot

problem to be solved

Figurative Language:

similes (as fat as a pig)

metaphors (He is a rat)

onomatopoeia (Pop! Bang!)

foreign words (from another language)

Source of information (Where did the information come from?)

Story structure: Hook (How did the author get your attention at the beginning of the story?)

Can an author infer any patterns of behavior from this story?

What else would an author be interested in about this story?

What unanswered questions might the author have about this story?

How would an author's job be affected by fact or opinion?