

Transition Series for Families & School Staff

The Special Education Services Section of the Alabama State Department of Education is offering a series of five virtual, professional learning opportunities as part of the SPDG grant to improve transition outcomes for students with disabilities and their parents in planning, implementing, and evaluating transition projects.

Dates, topics, and presenters for the transition training series are as follows:

Saturday, April 15, 2023 (8:30 a.m.— 11:30 a.m. CST)

Transition Assessment: The Building Blocks to Compliant Transition Planning

Dr. Kendra Williams-Diehm & Dr. Malarie Deardorff, Zarrow Institute

Thursday, April 20, 2023 (9:00 a.m. — Noon CST)

Facilitating Student Work Experiences

Mr. Sean Roy, TransCen Inc.

Saturday, April 29, 2023 (8:30 a.m.— 11:30 a.m. CST)

Stepping Up Transition from Compliance to QUALITY

Dr. Kendra Williams-Diehm & Dr. Malarie Deardorff, Zarrow Institute

Wednesday, May 3, 2023 (8:00 a.m. — 4:00 p.m. CST)

Educate, Collaborate, and Engage Families and Students as Transition Partners

Ms. Judy Averill, Ms. Lisa Holland, & Ms. Kendel St. John, Virginia Commonwealth University

Thursday, May 11, 2023 (Noon — 4:00 p.m. CST)

Transition-It's Not All About Heroes, Holidays, and Food

Dr. June Gothberg-Yang Tan Institute on Employment & Disability & Dr. Gary Greene, Professor Emeritus in Special Education, California State University

Family members may register by emailing: rhonda.morton@alsde.edu.

School staff click or scan to register:

The State Personnel Development Grant (SPDG) is funded through a five-year grant from the Office of Special Education Programs, CFDA #84.323A and the Alabama State Department of Education.

